FOUNDING LEAD ELEMENTARY TEACHER JOB DESCRIPTION

Open Position: Founding Lead Elementary Teacher

Xavier Jesuit Academy seeks an engaging and inspiring individual to serve as its Founding Lead (Elementary) Teacher (FLT). The FLT will have a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to be a school's first teacher, establishing the vision for all faculty who will join him/her. Working side-by-side with the Founding Principal, the FLT will establish learning culture, curricular vision, and classroom pedagogy for Xavier Jesuit Academy. The FLT will be an experienced elementary teacher with a proven history of transforming the learning trajectory of students from communities suffering cultural divestment.

Position Type: Full-time, 12-month, exempt

Start Date: Spring - Summer 2023

Equal Employment Opportunity: Xavier Jesuit Academy is an equal opportunity employer.

About Xavier Jesuit Academy

Xavier Jesuit Academy (XJA), a newly established Catholic, Jesuit, urban primary school in Cincinnati, OH, that will serve male students in 3rd through 8th grade from modest economic backgrounds, aims to open in the fall of the 2024-25 academic year at the site of the former St. Agnes School building at the Church of the Resurrection (1625 Carolina Avenue, Cincinnati, OH 45237) in the Bond Hill neighborhood.

Mission: Preparing young males to be leaders and "Men for Others" through disciplined academic preparation for life in the Catholic and Jesuit tradition, while enriching their families and communities.

XJA will provide a disciplined academic program with robust faith formation, thus preparing graduates to thrive in academics and Christian leadership in high school, college, employment, and life. XJA will strive to form young "men for others" who become leaders, and are faith-filled, loving, strive for intellectual excellence, are committed to justice, and open to growth.

XJA will strive to build a culture of love and service, dedicated to upholding the dignity and supporting the flourishing of each person as a child of God. XJA is committed to establishing a solid learning model grounded in the Catholic, Jesuit tradition, upheld by Gospel values, academic excellence and self-discipline. XJA strives to become a tangible catalyst of love and a hope-filled future for the students, their families and networks of care, and the Bond Hill / Roselawn communities who are working for economic and education equity and opportunity, especially for young African American males. The Jesuits have a history of serving youth in poverty across the country through faith-based education that transforms lives and breaks the cycle of poverty.

Xavier Jesuit Academy is committed to:

- Strong partnerships with families, networks of care, and community
- Disciplined academic programming and environment with extended school day and low student to teacher/support staff ratio
- Focused summer academic and formation programming
- Care for the whole person

The Midwest Province of the Society of Jesus (Jesuits) sponsors XJA as an independent Catholic school.
