

TIMELINE

(2024–2028) PHASE 1

(2024–2025) Phase 1A: Fence, landscaping, roads and utilities	Estimated Cost: $1 million
(2025–2027) Phase 1B: First academic building, women’s dormitory, first stage of Jesuit residence	Estimated Cost: $11 million*
(2026–2028) Phase 1C: Men’s dormitory, second stage of Jesuit residence, and dispensary	Estimated Cost: $6 million

Total PHASE 1 cost: $18 million

(2028–2030) PHASE 2: Second academic building, two dormitories, two cafeterias, library, eight staff housing buildings
(2030–2032) PHASE 3: Third academic building, administration building, Jesuit university parish, student center and commons

$450,000 funding already received, $2 million requested from USAID/ASHA*

INTRODUCING

HEKIMA UNIVERSITY

MOLO, KENYA

FIRST JESUIT UNIVERSITY
IN EASTERN AFRICA

GETTING OFF THE GROUND

Immediate Needs

- Cost of staff to fulfill requirements for Kenya's Commission for University Education: $50,000
- Borehole: $57,000
- Library books: 15,000 volumes

CONTACT INFO

For more information or to donate online, visit www.JesuitsMidwest.org/HekimaUnivKenya.

To donate by mail, send a check payable to The Jesuits with "Hekima University Molo, Kenya" in the memo line to:

USA Midwest Jesuits
P.O. Box 6713
Carol Stream, IL 60197-6713

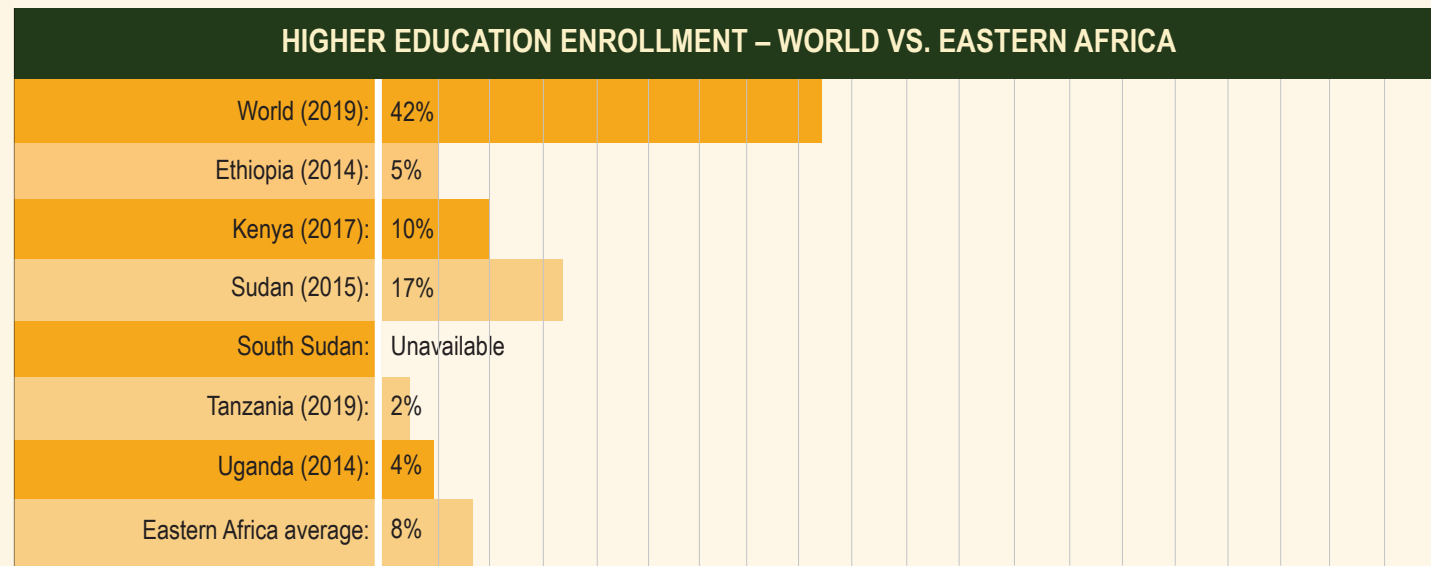

To schedule a call or visit to learn more about supporting the new Jesuit university, contact Fr. Paul Kalenzi, SJ, a Jesuit of the Eastern Africa Province living and fundraising in the United States.

pkalenzi@jesuits.org (617) 860-7805

WHY A JESUIT UNIVERSITY IN EASTERN AFRICA?

- ▶ The number of college-aged students far exceeds the number of university seats available in Eastern Africa.
- ▶ Students, especially from Jesuit secondary schools, recognize that they need university degrees to qualify for desirable jobs.
- ▶ Jesuit universities have a proven track record of attracting high-quality faculty in a wide range of disciplines throughout the world.

Source: UNESCO Institute for Statistics, 2021

JESUIT SECONDARY SCHOOLS

The Jesuits have been successful educators in Eastern Africa for more than 65 years, principally in high schools.

Current Jesuit secondary schools in Eastern Africa

- Ocer Champion (Gulu, Uganda)
- Loyola High (Dar es Salaam, Tanzania)
- St. Peter Claver (Dodoma, Tanzania)
- Loyola Secondary (Wau, South Sudan)
- St. Joseph Technical Secondary (Nairobi, Kenya)
- St. Aloysius Gonzaga (Nairobi, Kenya) – founded and sponsored by the Christian Life Community, with Jesuit support

All six schools were built with worldwide and local support.

★ Location of the proposed new school

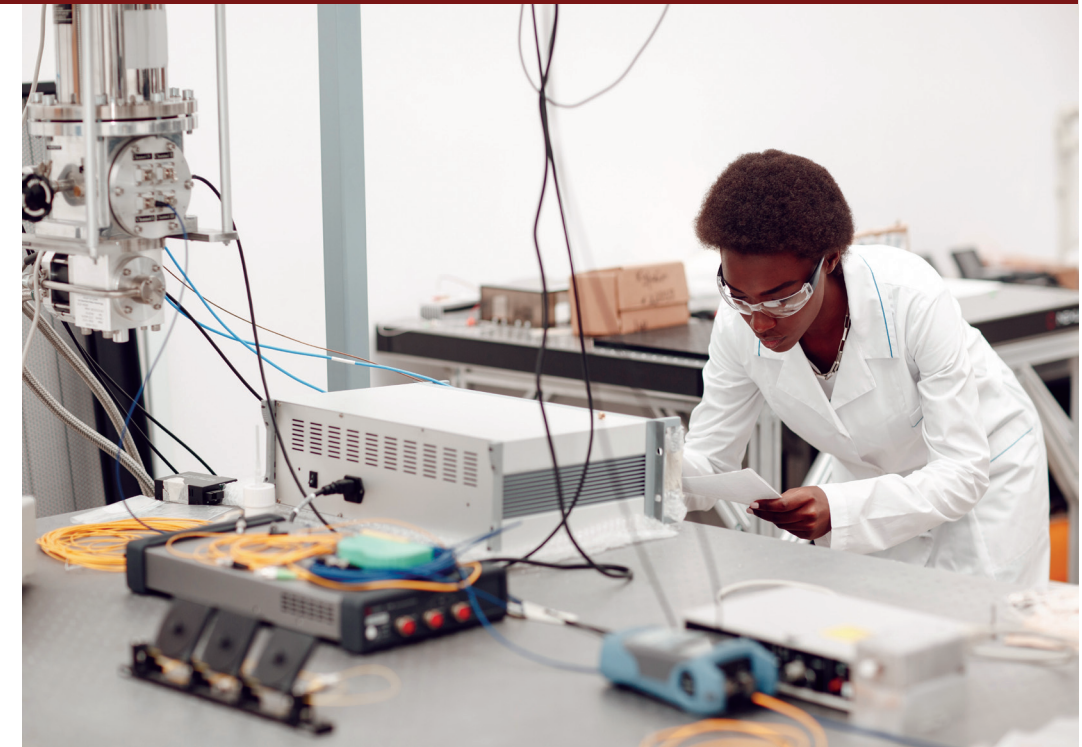

PROPOSED SCHOOLS WITHIN THE NEW HEKIMA UNIVERSITY

School of Data Science

School of Business

School of Education Science

School of Engineering

MISSION STATEMENT:

To form men and women committed to the advancement of innovative knowledge and technological entrepreneurship for a more just and humane society.

